

Earn up to $2000 if you finish high school with an average of 75% or higher.

Academic achievement entrance scholarship

No application is required. The scholarship will be applied to your tuition fees and will be deposited in your student account after the tenth day of the semester.

If your tuition fees are paid in full before you receive your scholarship, the amount will be sent to you by electronic transfer. Collège Boréal will also issue a T4A slip for your taxes.

Eligibility

You can get the academic achievement entrance scholarship if you:

- › Have obtained a high school diploma from Ontario or another Canadian province in 2024
- › Have been admitted to a first-year, full-time post-secondary program at Collège Boréal for the fall of 2024 or the winter of 2025; and
- › Are registered in said program no later than the tenth business day following the start of the course

Amount granted

The amount granted is predetermined based on final high school grades submitted during the admission process at Collège Boréal.

- › $2,000 for a final average of over 90%
- › $1,500 for a final average of 85% to 89.9%
- › $1,000 for a final average of 80% to 84.9%
- › $500 for a final average of 75% to 79.9%

Congratulations!
